TODAY the Mail urges its readers to heed the plea of a 32-year-old teacher stricken with leukaemia: 'Please don't let me die'.

Katherine Sinfield has been told that a bone marrow transplant is the only way she can beat the killer disease.

She said: "All I ask is for people to take just five minutes to search for bone marrow online and see if they could help. "I am looking forward to the day when I am discharged clear of leukaemia."

Now, we are urging readers to come forward to see if they are a match and can save Katherine's life.

DETERMINED . . . Katherine Sinfield is vowing to win her battle with leukaemia.
